Volunteer Share, Stan Oden:

"It's an honor to volunteer for Meals On Wheels.
I enjoy being a part of efforts to help those in need, to help 'the least of us'.
I'm thankful for my new friends,
and their graceful souls."

Veteran Connection: See who(& what!) you have been missing:

Jose Pinto from Senior Medical Patrol, Preventing Medicare Fraud.

Kelly Fisk with fellow veteran and volunteer, Paul Williams @Kiwanis of Lost Mtn.

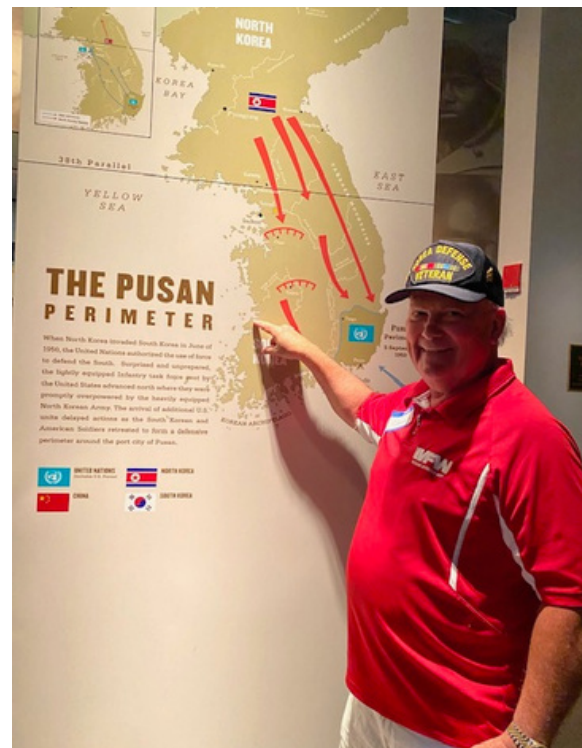

We are excited to share that our first 'Take a Vet To School Day' program was a great success. North Cobb Christian School's Principal Craig Konchak, faculty member Jim Bitner, and history teacher Lori Ballington along with her 8th grade history students welcomed U.S. Army Veterans Sarita & Kerry Dyer. Combined the Dyer's have given 58 years of service to our country.

Day trip to the National Infantry Museum
& Soldier Center with our veterans.

Special thanks to the Vinings Cumberland
Rotary Club
for sponsoring this trip for our veterans.

#Things to Smile About:

Michael Shaw and his wife, Nancy took a spectacular river cruise out of Oregon.

Mary Jacobs does her route with some help from her daughter, Emma, and pup, Braxton.

MOW volunteer Donna Glover always comes prepared for any weather conditions!

Placemats made with love for our Meals on Wheels clients.

New volunteer, Elinor Amos

Kathy Berkowitz ends her 5 week Diabetes class with a lesson in healthy cooking.

#Things to Smile About:

Volunteers, Peggy Johnson & Chuck Core helped out at the Prevent Blindness of GA Vision Clinic at the Senior Wellness Center.

Mother & daughter duo, Monica & Harmony Barbara on their first delivery day.

Thank you to all who continues to help feed our client's pets.

Karen & Kevin Smits had a wonderful time hiking and chasing waterfalls in the Great Smoky Mountains! Next stop was New Orleans for Jazz Fest

Liam Bunde, a high school senior at Mt. Bethel Christian Academy, baked cookies for our Meals on Wheels clients.
